TGI Fridays™ and Grubhub Deliver Nationwide to Give Guests That Fridays Feeling

Dallas, TX – TGI Fridays™, the American restaurant brand globally recognized for its delivery of good food and good times, has announced a deal with Grubhub, the nation's leading online and mobile food-ordering and delivery marketplace to expand the delivery service to all 312 locations in the U.S, so that any guest within the trade area of a TGI Fridays location can have its signature dishes delivered hot to their door.

"Our longstanding partnership with Grubhub's integrated delivery marketplace has been such a benefit – not only for guests, but also for franchisees," said Sara Bittorf, Chief Experience Officer at TGI Fridays. "At Fridays, our passion is giving guests that special TGI Fridays feeling however we can. Grubhub's reputation for the convenience and ease delivered with every meal serves as the perfect complement to the Fridays philosophy of bringing real people together for a good time."

Grubhub and TGI Fridays initially launched their partnership in August 2016, starting at the legendary restaurant brand's Buffalo, NY location.

"We understand the value of enjoying a favorite meal with your favorite people," added Bittorf. "With Grubhub, we're committed to continuing to provide our fans with their Fridays favorites, whenever and wherever they want to enjoy it."
